

RESPECT

Respect means...

Listening to others when they speak.

Treating others like you want to be treated.

Being courteous to others and using good manners.

Solving problems without hurting people.

Treating the property of others with care.

Being sensitive to other people's feelings, preferences, and opinions

Using kind and positive language.

