Criteria for receiving assistance:

Priority will be given to baptized Catholics who come from a family that actively practices its faith through regular attendance at Sunday Mass and participates in a regular verifiable support of a parish offertory program with a fair and just amount.

Non-Catholic families may apply for assistance. A family should practice its faith through regular attendance at services and participates in a regular verifiable support of a parish offertory program with a fair and just amount.

For the school year 2010-2011, applications submitted no later than September 1, 2010, November 1, 2010 and February 1, 2011. Assistance will not be considered after May 1, 2011.

I testify to the fact that my above answers are truthful and verifiable:
